National Data Repository & Licence Round Promotion

Your NDR roadmap to success...

National Data Repository

A National Data Repository (NDR) delivers numerous benefits. Initiating, building and operating an NDR are complex processes with fiscal, legal and technical implications.

Since 1987 Fugro Data Solutions (FDS) has provided data management consultancy and services to a global client base comprising the largest organisations. FDS combines the experience of storing, cataloguing, conditioning and hosting E&P data with data management software that is uniquely flexible, scalable and modular.

Providing the whole range of NDR solutions, encompassing training, consultancy, physical & digital storage, web hosting and single or multiple data types, FDS is ready to add value to your data.

With nearly 30 years experience of working with national oil corporations and government ministries from all parts of the world, FDS can help you achieve your goals.

Providing Training & Skills

If you have yet to define your NDR or think it could operate more smoothly why not consider our NDR training courses? Each course provides participants with the skills to define your roadmap to success.

Licence Round Promotion

Attracting investment is increasingly competitive. In order to succeed it is important to correctly balance technical, legal and fiscal considerations and to fully promote the opportunities. Working in collaboration with other Fugro companies and carefully selected partners, Fugro Data Solutions (FDS) can help you at every stage of the process.
